Clear Insight Incorporated is an SBA-certified 8(a) small business that specializes in providing operations management support, acquisition, project management, advanced data analytics solutions, and IT solution development consulting services. Our primary focus is to assist in developing the tools, systems, processes, and solutions to improve operational efficiency and effectiveness, including supply chain management for federal and state clients in healthcare, international aid, and science industries.

We bring years of experience in various aspects of operations management services, including supply chain management spanning multiple industries for federal and state clients, such as HHS, USAID, and NIH, among others. We specialize in leveraging technology and analytics into supply chain functions to identify actionable insights for our clients to transform their operations, reduce costs, and improve service.

 To meet our clients' evolving needs, Clear Insight has established a strategic partnership with iVision, Inc. (DBA iVision Consulting, Inc.). iVision is a HUBZone and Small Disadvantaged Business (SDB), delivering a broad spectrum of digital business transformation, strategy, and technology services for over 18+ clients in the healthcare, energy, science, and finance industries, including DOE, HHS, NIH, NOAA, SSA, and VA.

Together, we bring over 17 years of experience to support large-scale modernization and efficiency initiatives for federal, state, and commercial clients in five key service areas. We are committed to building trusted partnerships with our clients.
